

Matt White began as a Program Facilitator at TotalLink to Community in July 2024. He facilitates several programs at TotalLink, including Guys Night Out, Accountability, Board Game Cafe, Saturday Celebrations, and others.

Matt has worked in education for many years, teaching primarily high school students but also children and English language learners. He loves to see others overcome challenges and discover their true potential. Matt has a bachelor's degree in History and Political Science from Loyola University Chicago and a master's degree in Philosophy from Fordham University.

Most of all, Matt loves playing with his two young kids. Aside from this, he loves to cook, spend time in nature, and take time to learn about something new everyday. In addition to working at TotalLink, Matt runs a small train station coffee shop in the mornings for commuters.
