

Jade Andrews

Jade Andrews is TotalLink's Program Manager. Her natural leadership and creativity skills is implemented in several of the programs and coaching opportunities offered at TotalLink. Jade is passionate about establishing connections with people in her community and inspiring confidence in those around her.

Originally from upstate NY, Jade has a Bachelors of Arts degree from SUNY New Paltz where she studied Theatre and Philosophy. She spent much of her college career acting and costume designing and continues to do freelance theater work across the Chicagoland area. Jade also has experience teaching teens and young adults reproductive health and safety curriculum. In her free time, she enjoys thrifting vintage clothing, cooking plant-based cuisine, and spending time with her cats.