

Emily Raming

Emily Raming is the Executive Director of TotalLink to Community. She has been instrumental in the success of and growth of its employment, educational and social programs, and accreditation from the Council on Quality and Leadership.

Emily started with TotalLink as an employment specialist in 2012. She is passionate about her work and brings a deep understanding of individuals with disabilities and their family's interests and needs to her role, having worked for the North Suburban Special Education District (NSSSED) for six years before joining TotalLink.

She has her BS in Psychology from Miami of Ohio, has been certified as a QMHP with Neumann Family Services, and has her ACRE Certification through Griffin-Hammis Associates. Emily is respected by educators, clients, and key stakeholders. She is highly skilled in applying Customized Employment (CE) methodology, TEACCH, and other evidence-based practices for employee support and task analysis.